RECESSIONAL

You gave us no last farewell, nor ever said good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why.
A million times we will miss you, a million times we will cry.

In our heart you hold a place no one else could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you, the day God took you home.

We will meet again someday I know in a better place.
I thank God, He made you our brother while you were here on earth.

*Love beyond words.
Missed beyond measure.*

Always and forever in our hearts,
Curt & Cortney

Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Life Reflections

CHARLES EDWARD DEWS, JR.

Charles Edward Dewes, Jr. was born Wednesday, September 4, 1968, in Tyler, Texas to Charles E. Dewes and Bessie L. Guster Dewes. He attended Tyler Public Schools, and he worked in the food service industry. Charles joined New Holland Baptist Church at an early age.

On Friday, August 16, 2024, Charles Dewes, Jr. transitioned. He is survived by two children, Ciara Dewes of Tyler, Texas and Corderra Dewes of Tennessee; siblings: Curtis (Quintaro) Glenn Dewes, Cortney (Michael) Hill-Stewart both of Tyler, Texas; seven grandchildren, nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles, along with a host of family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents Charles E. Dewes and Bessie L. Guster Dewes, as well as his grandparents Jimmie L. and Luvera W. Guster, along with Med and Lera Dewes.
